

The European Journal of Applied Linguistics and TEFL

Volume 5 Number 2

Edited by Christine C. M. Goh and Andrzej Cirocki

The European Journal of Applied Linguistics and TEFL (EJALTEFL) is a refereed academic publication which aims to disseminate information, knowledge and expertise in the broad area of applied linguistics.

Volume 5 Number 2 is a special issue devoted to the theme of Teaching and Researching Listening and Speaking Skills in the TESOL Classroom. It brings together contributions from well-respected and influential applied linguists and teacher educators from around the world.

EJALTEFL provides a valuable source of reference for applied linguists, teacher educators, materials developers and practitioners in the field of EFL/ESL. It offers readers a deeper insight into current issues and practices, thereby broadening their knowledge and promoting professional development.

Available from booksellers or by subscription (two issues per year).
