

The European Journal of Applied Linguistics and TEFL

Volume 9 Number 2

Edited by Andrzej Cirocki and Paula Golombek

The European Journal of Applied Linguistics and TEFL (EJALTEFL) is a refereed academic publication which aims to disseminate information, knowledge and expertise in the broad area of applied linguistics. Strong preference is given to contributions relating to second language acquisition, foreign language pedagogy, teacher training and classroom innovation.

Volume 9 Number 2 is a special issue devoted to the theme of Sociocultural Theory in Teacher Education and Development and consists of ten articles presenting the latest research and scholarship from the United States, New Zealand, Japan, Russia, Chile and Mexico.

This provides a valuable source of reference for applied linguists, teacher trainers, materials developers and practitioners in the field of EFL/ESL. It offers readers a deeper insight into current issues, thereby broadening their knowledge and promoting professional development.

Available from booksellers or by subscription (two issues per year).
